Shadow Weaver

MarcyKate Connolly

Now in paperback! Emmeline can control shadows, but what happens when her shadow starts craving a life of its own?

Emmeline's gift to control shadows makes her the subject of fear. When a noble stranger visits and offers her parents a cure, Emmeline is terrified that she'll lose her only friend—her shadow, Dar. So Dar proposes a deal: she will change the noble's mind if Emmeline will help her become flesh.

When the man ends up in a coma, Emmeline is blamed. Now forced to flee, her only hope of clearing her name is to find a way to give the shadow a life of its own.

La mirada de una bruja:

Antonia J. Corrales

Antonia J. Corrales

La mirada de una bruja, segunda parte de la trilogía Historia de una bruja contemporánea.

Tras descubrir que su vida ha retrocedido hasta el momento previo a su separación de Alán, Diana intenta seguir adelante con la esperanza de recuperar todo lo que ha perdido en ese salto: el evangelio de las brujas, la gaveta, el pentagrama y, especialmente, la amistad de sus compañeros de viaje, que tanta ayuda le brindaron la primera vez que llegó a ese ático madrileño lleno de magia, secretos y enigmas.

Esta segunda entrega de la trilogía Historia de una bruja contemporánea está llena de la magia que la sociedad parece haber olvidado.

Just After Midnight

Catherine Ryan Hyde

From the New York Times bestselling author of Pay It Forward comes an uplifting and poignant novel about friendship, trust, and facing your fears.

No longer tolerating her husband's borderline abuse, Faith escapes to her parents' California beach house to plan her next move. She never dreamed her new chapter would involve befriending Sarah, a fourteen-year-old on the run from her father and reeling from her mother's sudden and suspicious death.

But the journey is far from over. Faith must learn the value of trusting her instincts—and realize that the key to her future, and Sarah's, is in her hands.

The Arrow Collector

Cristian Perfumo, Kevin Gerry Dunn

A forensic detective in Patagonia unearths an archeological mystery in this novel of buried secrets and murder from Argentinian author Cristian Perfumo.

The calm of a sleepy Patagonian fishing port has been broken by murder. It's the case of a lifetime for brilliant and headstrong forensic detective Laura Badía. The crime is brutal and baffling. The victim is Julio Ortega, a local heartthrob and an old flame of Laura's. The apparent motive is the theft of a collection of ancient and mysterious iridescent arrowheads that Ortega had recently acquired. Carved nearly six thousand years ago out of Amazon opal, they are now missing from Ortega's home, vanishing once again into legend.

The Thing About Clare

Imogen Clark

A dying wish. A devastating secret. Should the truth really stay buried?

The four Bliss siblings have a loving but complicated bond, but when their mother, Dorothy, dies seemingly without a will, this relationship is put to the test. As the mourning siblings try to make sense of the situation, one of them is caught with a secret: before she died, Dorothy entrusted her favourite daughter with her will and a letter—and told her to destroy them both.

But what Anna finds in the documents could change everything. Do the other siblings not deserve to know what it is about them that their mother was so desperate to hide? And if it is revealed, will the Bliss family ever be the same again?

A Thunder of War

Steve McHugh

There's thunder on the horizon, and the lightning of war is about to strike.

After years of struggle, Layla Cassidy has finally mastered the dark powers that threatened to control her and turned them to good. She's ready to fight, but the next battle will be her greatest test yet.

The forces of Avalon are growing ever stronger, reinforcing their dominance with almighty displays of brutality. When Abaddon comes close to crushing Layla and her friends, it's clear that the thunder of war is about to give way to lightning—and that they have no chance of surviving it alone.

The River Widow
Ann Howard Creel

From the bestselling author of The Whiskey Sea comes a stirring novel of a young woman's survival and liberation during the Great Depression.

In 1937, with flood waters approaching, Adah Branch accidentally kills her abusive husband, Lester, and surrenders his body to the raging river, only to be swept away herself.

So begins her story of survival, return to civilization, defense against accusations of murder, and the fight to save herself and her stepdaughter, Daisy, from the clutches of her husband's notoriously cruel family, who have their sights set on revenge for Lester's death. Essentially trapped, Adah must plan an escape.

Defending Chloe
Susan Stoker

Love is the best defense in New York Times bestselling author Susan Stoker's explosive Mountain Mercenaries novel.

Gorgeous women don't just stumble onto Ronan Cross's remote property. But this one—vulnerable, victimized, and needing the kind of help only Ronan can offer—tells a story that makes his blood boil almost as hot as his need to protect her.

Since her father's death, Chloe Harris has become a prisoner. Her own brother, a flesh peddler and low-level player in the Denver Mafia, is forcing her to sell her body for an endgame Chloe never saw coming: control over a vast fortune. Her only way out is to run—straight into the arms of the one hard-bodied man she can trust.

The Warner Boys:
Our Family's Story of Autism and Hope

Curt Warner, Ana Warner, Dave Boling

An emotional, revealing memoir of one family's life in seclusion—and the love, strength, and faith it took to save it.

Seahawks star running back Curt Warner and his wife, Ana, were prominent figures in Seattle in the early 1990s. When they dropped from the public eye after Curt's retirement, everyone assumed it was for a simpler life. But the reality behind their seclusion was a secret they hid from even their closest friends: their twins, Austin and Christian, had been diagnosed with severe autism. What followed was a painful struggle to hold their family and their marriage together in a home filled with chaos, emotional exhaustion, and constant fear for the safety of their unpredictable but beloved boys.

High Magick: A Guide to the Spiritual Practices That Saved My Life on Death Row
Damien Echols

At age 18, Damien Echols was sentenced to death for a crime he didn't commit. "I spent my years in prison training to be a true magician," he writes. "I used magick—the practice of reshaping reality through our intention and will—to stave off incredible pain, despair, and isolation. But the most amazing feat of all that practice and study was to manifest my freedom." With High Magick, this bestselling author shares his first teaching book on the powerful spiritual techniques that helped him survive and transcend his ordeal on death row.

The Miles Davis Reader: Updated Edition
Frank Alkyer

If you ever needed proof that a magazine can have a love affair with a musician, you're holding it in your hands. For DownBeat, the preeminent publication of the jazz world, Miles Dewey Davis was one of its most cherished subjects. Since it began covering the jazz scene in 1939, no other artist has been more diligently chronicled in its pages than Davis. The reviews of his music go from quietly introducing a new talent to revering, perhaps, the greatest jazz artist of his generation. The interviews show Davis gaining confidence and stature, showing swagger and becoming the over-the-top showman that made every interview an event. The Miles Davis Reader compiles more than 200 news stories, feature articles, and reviews by some of the greatest writers in jazz into one volume.

Singular Sensations: Six Masters of the Solo Stage: Contemporary Comedy – Men
Glenn Young

The one-person genre is a vibrant expression of American dramatic vision. Our greatest dramatists often express their most intimate work projected through one voice heart-to-heart with the audience. Perhaps more than any other dramatic form, the one person play is suited for reading and personal enjoyment. Most of the plays appear in trade book form for the very first time. Actors, students, teachers, directors, and librarians will embrace the volumes in this series as an essential library of stellar talent for performance, audition study, and reading enjoyment. Plays include: Buyer and Cellar (Jonathan Tolins) * Patti Issues (Ben Rimalower) * Methtacular (Steven Strafford) * The Professional (Mary Louise Wilson).
